Website: http://www.salariya.com/web_boooks/mummy/index.html

Directions: go to the website above and follow the instructions to answer the questions listed.

* Read the first page to get instructions on site navigation! Blinking white circles will show you what the people are saying!
* Use the task bar at the left of the page and the red headings/directions at the bottom of the pages to take you places within the site.

Click on "Introduction"
1.   Why was it important to keep the pharaoh happy?

Click on "Dead?"
2. Which organ was left inside the body?
3. How was the brain removed?

Click on "What you will need."
4. What did most Egyptians save throughout their life?
5. What are canopic jars used for?

Click on "Organs Removed"
6. What 4 organs are removed first?
7. What was the body washed out with?
8. How long does it take the body to dry out?
9. Why are intestines a problem?
10. What happens after the intestines are completely dry?

Click on "Organs Store" at the bottom of the page
11. What is each canonic jar protected by?

Click on "Get Stuffed"
12. What does your skin look like after 40 days in the natron?
13. What odd kitchen item can false eyes be made from?

Click on "Tomb Bound"

14. How many layers of bandages do you need?

15. What is resin used for.

16. What should be buried? Why?

Click on "Tomb Accessories" at the bottom of the page

17. What are amulets?

18. Why is the scarab beetle important?

Click on "Coffins, etc"

19. What is painted on the coffins?

20. What purpose do hieroglyphics serve?

Click on "Your Tomb Goods"

21. What is the book of the dead?

Click on "Your Funeral"

22. Where are you buried?

Click on "The Tomb and Beyond"

23. Who is Anubis?

24. What does he weigh your heart against?

25. Who waits to eat the heart if it too heavy with bad debts?

Click on "Eternal Rest"

26. What 4 things are scarce and valuable in ancient Egypt?

Write 3 other interesting facts you discovered in your search. Be sure to include what section you found them in!

1.

2.

3.